

Participant Agreement in the Bristol Anatomy Course (BAC)

1 Introduction

This Agreement sets out the relationship between the Bristol Anatomy Course (BAC) and its participants. It is intended to enable and facilitate the relationship.

2 Agreement

The Agreement between you and the Bristol Anatomy Course commences when you accept the offer of a place on the course.

3 The Bristol Anatomy Course Obligations

The BAC will provide you with the tuition indicated in the course that you have applied for, subject to these conditions, with reasonable care and skill. The BAC will make all reasonable efforts to deliver your programme as described in the course prospectus for the appropriate course dates. However, the BAC shall be entitled:

- to alter the timetable, location, and method of delivery of your course, provided such alterations are reasonable;
- to make reasonable variations to the content and syllabus of your course;
- to postpone, or cancel, your course (for example, because a key member of staff is unwell);
- not to provide your particular course if the BAC reasonably considers this to be necessary, (for example, because too few participants apply to join the programme for it to be viable, or, too few faculty are available to teach the course e.g. through illness, concurrent over-riding commitments).

In the unlikely event that the BAC postpones your course:

- the BAC will tell you at the earliest possible opportunity;
- the BAC will make an appropriate refund of tuition fees you have paid (see para 5)

4 Your obligations

You must comply with your obligations under these conditions and, in accordance with any reasonable requests. You are required to:

- conduct yourself in a proper manner ;
- comply with professional standards;
- understand and comply with the provisions of The Human Tissues Act 2004
- health and safety regulations;
- computing regulations
- data protection information and data protection guidelines;
- provisions relating to confidential information;

5 Fees and Payment

It is your responsibility to make sure your course fees are paid. The course fees will be as stated on the website and as reviewed and revised for each course. These fees and expenses do not include any fees payable for residential accommodation provided to you by any third party, nor do they include travelling expenses or other course costs.

Should you cancel your attendance you will be entitled to a refund of your course fees under the following terms:

- more than 4 weeks notice 100% refund of course fee
- less than 4 weeks notice 50% refund of course fee

In some circumstances the BAC may retain the course fee and offer you a place on a subsequent course.

6 The Bristol Anatomy Course Liabilities

The BAC cannot accept responsibility, and expressly excludes liability, for any loss or damage to your property, including damage to any motor vehicle or cycle, while on University premises, unless caused by the negligence of the University or its employees;

7 Termination of Agreement

The BAC may end this Agreement by written notice to you if you do not pay your course fees.

8 Notices

Any notice made under this Agreement shall be in writing. Good service may be given by email, to the last email address you gave to the BAC.

9 General

If any provision of these terms and conditions is or becomes illegal, invalid, void or unenforceable, that shall not affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the other provisions.

Neither you nor the BAC shall be liable to each other for any failure or delay in performing obligations, if the failure or delay is due to any cause beyond that party's reasonable control, for example fire, flood or industrial dispute.

10 Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
