

The Bristol Anatomy Course website – Privacy Policy

The Bristol Anatomy Course website will not store or capture personal data (eg name, email address) without the prior knowledge and consent of users.

The Bristol Anatomy Course does not sell or otherwise transfer any personal data to commercial companies or other organisations.

The Bristol Anatomy Course website use cookies to aid the user experience (e.g. to save the user from re-entering personal details for every page in a section of the site, including the 'Quick links' area). Cookies are also used to compile general (not personal) site usage statistics. Cookies are not used to capture or store personal information for any other purpose.

The Bristol Anatomy Course maintains continuous logs of its web server activity. These log files include the details of web site users' IP address, browser type and page last visited etc. The log files are used to analyse how the web site is being used by visitors and may be kept in an anonymised form for historical records.

This privacy statement applies to the web pages of the Bristol Anatomy Course
